1985—What A Year For Wade Boggs

1. Wade tied one major league record, set two other American League records, and established two other team marks as well. By hitting safely in 135 games, he broke Al Simmons' A.L. mark (133 in 1925) and tied Chuck Klein's M.L. record (1930). He also set new A.L. records with his 187 singles breaking Willie Wilson's mark of 184 (1980) and 758 plate appearances breaking Bobby Richardson's mark of 754 (1962). The two Red Sox records that he set as well for hits, 240 (Tris Speaker, 222 in 1912) and multi-hit games, 72 (Jim Rice, 69 in 1978).
2. He led the majors with his .368 average, 240 hits, 187 singles, 72 multi-hit games, and .450 on-base pct.
3. Along with being a Red Sox record, his 240 hits were the most in the M.L. since 1930 (Bill Terry 254) and the most in the A.L. since 1928 (Heinie Manush 241). It also ranks him 6th all-time in the A.L. and 11th all-time in the majors for hits in a season.
4. Having hit .349, .361, .325, and .368 in his four seasons in the majors, he now carries a .351 career average into 1986. That ranks him #1 on the Red Sox all-time list and also puts him 7th for all players through the first four years of their careers.
5. He led the team with a .418 average in Fenway, 2nd best to Ted Williams' .428 in 1941. He also led by hitting .322 on the road, the best on the Sox since Carl Yastrzemski hit .326 in 1963.
6. By winning his second A.L. batting title, Wade becomes the 4th Red Sox player to win the title more than once. Ted Williams won 6, Yaz won 3, and Pete Runnels won 2. Nine different Red Sox hitters have won 18 A.L. batting crowns. In addition, a Red Sox player has now won the title in 4 of the last 7 years (Fred Lynn—1979, Carney Lansford—1981).
7. From June 24 through July 25, Wade hit in 28 straight games, the 3rd longest streak in Red Sox history. Only Dom DiMaggio (34 games in 1949) and Tris Speaker (30 games in 1912) have longer streaks. It was also the longest streak in the majors since 1980, when Ken Landreaux hit in 31 straight for the Twins and George Brett hit in 30 consecutive games for the Royals. During his streak Wade hit .402 (45-112), slugged .527, and had a .481 on-base percentage.
8. Month-by-month with Boggs in '85: April .301, May .317, June .376, July .388, August .398, September .426, and October .259.
9. Wade's longest hitless streak was 10 at bats (twice), and he never went hitless longer than 2 games (4 times).
10. By reaching base 340 times (via H, BB, or HB), Wade led the M.L. for the 3rd straight season and became just the 2nd player to reach 300 times more than once since 1958 (Pete Rose, 5 times). The last player to reach base more times in a year was Ted Williams in 1949 (358).
11. To top off the season, Wade was named to the A.L. All-Star team in July, to The Sporting News A.L. All-Star team after the season and the BoSox Club's Man of the Year.

Other Individual and Team Accomplishments in 1985

HITTING FOR THE CYCLE: Rich Gedman hit for the cycle on September 18 vs. Toronto, becoming the 16th Red Sox player to accomplish this unusual feat and the 1st Red Sox catcher to do it.

ALL-STARS: Jim Rice, Wade Boggs, and Rich Gedman all represented the Red Sox at the All-Star Game in Minneapolis. It was the 7th time that Rice had been selected (4th start), while Boggs and Gedman were each making their first appearance.

200 HITS: With Wade Boggs (240) and Bill Buckner (201) both enjoying 200-hit seasons, 1985 marked the first time that two Red Sox players had reached that plateau in the same season.

WHAT A START: After Mike Greenwell was called up in September, his first 3 major league hits were all home runs. It is believed to be the first time that has been done. Jeff Sellers was also a September recall, and he picked up a win in his first major league game (a start in Milwaukee Sept. 15).

10 K GAMES: Bruce Hurst struck out 10 or more in five different games in 1985. That not only is the most for a Sox lefthander in a season, but also breaks Dutch Leonard's career mark for a Red Sox southpaw. That is also the most that it has been done since Ray Culp did it 5 times in 1968. Even more remarkable is the fact that Hurst's previous single game strikeout high was 8.

John McNamara and Bill Fischer

STRIKEOUT LEADER: Hurst also led the team with 189 strikeouts, which not only is a new record for a Sox lefthander, but is also the most for a Sox pitcher since Luis Tiant struck out 206 in 1973. Bruce also ranked 4th in the A.L. in 1985, and only Fernando Valenzuela (208) and Floyd Bannister (198) had more among M.L. lefties.

ONE-HITTER: Al Nipper and Steve Crawford combined to defeat the Mariners on 1 hit in Seattle July 11. That was the first Red Sox 1-hitter of any kind since John Tudor's in 1983.

TEAM ERA: The Red Sox staff compiled a 4.06 ERA, which ranked 6th in the A.L. That marks their highest ranking since 1979.

GRAND SLAMS: Mike Easler hit 2 grand slams in 3 days. On August 31 in Minnesota (1st game of a doubleheader) he connected off Bert Blyleven, and then on September 2 in Texas he duplicated the feat against Chris Welsh. He narrowly missed a record-tying 3rd slam in a week when on September 5 in Fenway vs. Cleveland, the umpires ruled that his drive to left-field hit the top of the wall rather than a light tower as it appeared.

17-2 STREAK: From May 27 through June 17, the Red Sox were 17-2 and jumped from 6th place (18-24, 10 GB) to 2nd place (35-26, 2½ GB). During the 19 games the Sox hit .330 and outscored the opposition 119-55. The staff ERA was 2.55 with 4 shutouts. It was the team's best streak since the 1977 Sox also went 17-2.

DEBUTS: Six Red Sox players made their major league debuts in 1985. Mike Trujillo, Steve Lyons, Tommy McCarthy, Mike Greenwell, Kevin Romine, and Jeff Sellers all appeared in a M.L. game for the first time.

GAMES WON: Oil Can Boyd won 15 games, the most for a Red Sox pitcher since Dennis Eckersley won 17 in 1979. Eckersley is also the last Sox pitcher to win 20 (1978).

BEST AVERAGE: The Red Sox led the majors in average for the 2nd straight year with a .282 mark, 13 points higher than the Blue Jays, who were second. This is the 5th time in the last 11 years that the Sox have led the league in batting.

M.L. LEADERS IN 5 CATEGORIES: Along with batting, the Sox led the majors in hits, 1615, doubles, 292, total bases, 2455, and on-base percentage, .347. The team was also 2nd in the A.L. in slugging percentage, .429 and 3rd in runs scored, 800.

McNamara Begins Second Season With Sox

The Red Sox finished 81-81 in John McNamara's first season in Boston. His managerial efforts were hampered by seven major disabling injuries, including four on the pitching staff. Despite the uncertainty of the pitching staff, McNamara's hurlers allowed the second least home runs and ranked third in strikeouts in the American League, and the 4.06 ERA was the club's best since 1982.

McNamara was named the 36th manager of the Red Sox on October 18, 1984, succeeding Ralph Houk. McNamara begins his 13th year as a major league manager this spring, and the Red Sox are the 5th club that he has led.

After managing in the minor leagues, including pennant-winning seasons at Mobile in 1966 and Birmingham in 1967, John was promoted by Oakland to coach under Hank Bauer in 1968. He has been in the majors ever since.

In mid-September of 1969 he replaced Bauer as the A's manager, only to have Charlie Finley replace him with Dick Williams following the 1970 season, despite a second place finish. From there he went to San Francisco, where he coached under Charlie Fox for three seasons (1971-73).

His next chance to manage came at San Diego where he replaced Don Zimmer in 1974. The Padres showed steady improvement under John, and he lasted until 1977 when Ray Kroc again ran out of patience.

In 1978 he was coaching again, this time with the Angels under Dave Garcia. After that season he was hired by the Cincinnati Reds to succeed Sparky Anderson. He led the Reds to the National League West title his first year (1979), only to lose to the eventual World Champions, the Pirates, in the playoffs. In 1981, the year of the split season, Cincinnati posted the best overall record in baseball yet failed to appear in the playoffs, as the Dodgers edged them by a ½ game in the first half and the Astros finished 1½ ahead in the second half.

McNamara was then hired by the Angels for the 1983 campaign, and he managed there for two years before turning down an offer to return for 1985.

During his career he has managed three other current American League skippers—Pat Corrales of the Indians, Tony LaRussa of the White Sox, and Bobby Valentine of the Rangers, plus his third base coach, Rene Lachemann.

Vice-President and General Manager Lou Gorman has brought in eight new faces to bolster the Red Sox for the 1986 season. Four new pitchers, three outfielders and an infielder will don the Red Sox uniform this year.

The Red Sox obtained pitcher Sammy Stewart from the Baltimore Orioles on December 17 for Jackie Gutierrez. Stewart, 31, was 5-7 with a 3.61 ERA and nine saves in 1985. He gave up 117 hits in 129.2 innings and struck out 77.

Over the past three years, Stewart has a 21-15 record and 29 saves, along with three scoreless appearances in the 1983 World Series against Philadelphia.

Stewart has a 51-45 major league record with 42 saves and a 3.47 ERA in 307 games. He was signed by the Orioles as an undrafted free agent in 1975.

The deal between the Red Sox and the Orioles was their first since 1966 and their first player swap since 1960.

Utility infielder Ed Romero, 28, came to the Red Sox on December 10 in a one-for-one deal that sent pitcher Mark Clear to Milwaukee.

Romero, a lifetime .257 hitter, played in 88 games for the Brewers last season batting .251 with 21 RBI. He brings added flexibility to John McNamara's bench, as he can play all four infield positions and the outfield if need be.

The Red Sox and the Mets made an eight-player trade on November 13. The Mets sent RHPs Calvin Schiraldi and Wes Gardner and OFs John Christensen and LaSchelle Tarver to Boston in exchange for LHP Bob Ojeda and RHPs Tommy McCarthy, John Mitchell and Chris Bayer.

Schiraldi, 23, split last season between the Mets and Tidewater (AAA). With New York, he was 2-1 in 10 games with a 8.89 ERA. While at Tidewater, he was 4-5 with a 3.50 ERA in 17 starts. He was a teammate of Roger Clemens at the University of Texas and was the MVP of the 1983 College World Series, where he had a 4-0 record. In 1983, he had a 12-1 record in the regular season with a 1.69 ERA, earning All-American honors and being named Baseball America's College Pitcher of the Year. He was the 27th player taken in the June draft that year.

Gardner, 24, spent most of last year at Tidewater before being recalled in September. With the Tides, he was 7-6 with a 2.82 ERA in 53 games (all in relief), while compiling 18 saves to tie for the International League lead. He was 0-2 in nine games with the Mets. Overall last season, he struck out 86 in 88.2 innings.

Christensen, 25, began 1985 with the Mets, hitting just .186 in limited playing time before returning to Tidewater at the All-Star break. He hit .212 in 43 games with the Tides. He played in the 1979 College World Series with Cal-State Fullerton.

Tarver, 26, spent the entire season at Tidewater where he hit .311 and was second in the International League with 35 stolen bases. He has stolen 257 bases in five minor league seasons and has hit over .300 in every full professional season.

Outfielder Mike Stenhouse was acquired from the Minnesota Twins on December 12 for RHP Charlie Mitchell. Stenhouse, 27, hit .223 for the Twins in 81 games last year with five home runs and 21 RBI. He was the Expos first pick in the secondary phase of the January 1980 draft. The Harvard grad led the NCAA in batting in 1979. His father Dave pitched three years with the Washington Senators, starting the 1962 All-Star game, and is the current head coach at Brown University.

LHP Joe Sambito, a free agent, was signed to a Triple A contract January 31. Sambito, 33, pitched for the New York Mets and Tidewater (International League) in 1985. He spent almost nine years with the Houston Astros compiling a 33-32 record with 72 saves in 363 games. From 1978-81 he was the Astros leader in games and saves. He was on the National League All-Star team in 1979.

It's a tradition.

Florida Southern College / A WINNING TRADITION SINCE 1885

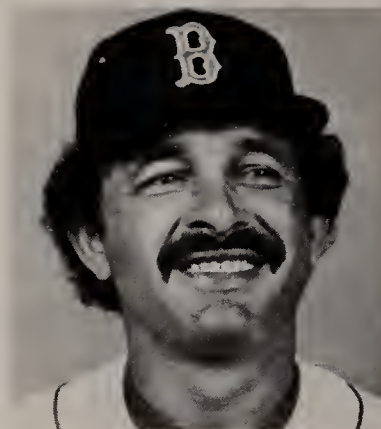

Ever since the first runner arrived at home plate at the same time as the throw from second, friendly debate with the man behind the plate has been one of baseball's most cherished traditions. It's hard to imagine the game without it.

We know about tradition. We're Florida Southern College in Lakeland, Florida. We've been educating young men and women in the liberal arts since 1885. When you are 100 years old, you have a lot of traditions.

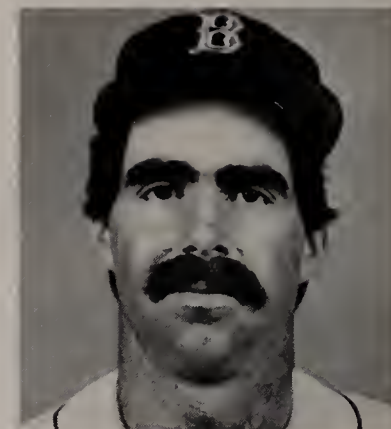

Our most important tradition, however, is quality education. We know that it's popular today for colleges to make all sorts of promises concerning their matchless curriculum, their star-studded activities program, their lush campus setting, etc. Yes. We make most of those same promises—but with a difference. We've been around long enough to know how to keep our promises. We are a four-year, coeducation school of 1,800 students. Our curriculum is outstanding and so are the gifted men and women who teach here. Our activities program is exciting and our campus setting is a national historic site because of the architecture. We are the largest collection in the world of buildings on one site by the master architect Frank Lloyd Wright. Our 100-acre campus is located on the shore of Lake Hollingsworth, one of 13 lakes that give Lakeland its name. Quality, in every aspect of college life, is a tradition here. If you'd like to know more about those traditions, write our director of admissions. He'll be happy to help.

Oh, what is a small private college doing advertising in a baseball program? Well, among the things we do well at Florida Southern is play baseball. We have been the NCAA Division 2 National Champs six times now. That's a record that no one else can equal. Like a lot of other things, championship baseball is a tradition here.

HERE'S WHAT TED WILLIAMS HAS TO SAY ABOUT CITRUS HILLS

I've lived in Florida since I retired from baseball, so I know the state pretty well. When I first heard about Citrus Hills, it sounded great. And when I actually saw the place, I knew Citrus Hills was for me. It gives me plenty of opportunity to fish, boat and enjoy all the other outdoor activities that are a part of my life. Best of all, there's plenty of room at Citrus Hills and the surrounding area, so there's no crowding. It's spacious and very relaxing. I now own a condominium and a home-site here.

But don't just take my word for it. See for yourself. The people at Cassidy Realty can arrange for you to visit the property. Call them today for details. One half block east of the

THE GREATEST SHOWS IN 50 YEARS!

AQUACADE '86—In honor of our 50th Anniversary, Cypress Gardens introduces an all-new water show, the likes of which you've never seen before! Thrill to everything from a spectacular 10-person simultaneous dive, to unbelievably beautiful synchronized swimming, to world champion free-style snow ski jumping, and even some hilarious clowning around! Don't miss it!

THE GOLDEN YEARS WATER SKI SHOW—50 years ago, Cypress Gardens introduced water skiing to the world. 57,000 performances later, we're again introducing the most exciting show to ever hit the water. With the world's most experienced water skiers, all-new music, glamorous costumes, it's truly our best in 50 years.

SOUTHERN ICE—In honor of our next 50 years as Florida's Show Place, Cypress Gardens debuts the only Ice Skating Revue in Florida. With high-flying performers, graceful figure skaters, elegant adagio couples, and laugh-a-minute comedy. All performed in a fantasy winter wonderland of special effects. Come experience the next 50 years of Cypress Gardens!

YOU'RE GONNA HAVE FUN!

We've packed in a full day of fun for young and old and everyone in between. Rock and roll on more major thrill rides than anywhere in Florida. Our spectacular shows will astound you with their amazing sights and breathtaking performances. You can even be part of the action. Be a clown, a sharp shooter or maybe the man on the flying trapeze! All at a great price. The best value and the most fun, for everyone, is at Circus World.

The Hottest Rides:

Hold onto your hats; we're going to turn you every which way but loose! (If you've got the nerve.) Our heart-pounding thrill rides are just plain awesome. And even the "younger" kids can try out the same kind of rides and the same thrills, but scaled down just their size. So, go on, take a deep breath, close your eyes if you must, and hang on tight!...at Circus World, your wildest screams can come true.

The Greatest Shows:

We'll knock your socks off show after show. We'll bedazzle you with our magic, take you back to the old west, jet you to exotic places (with our gigantic, 6 story IMAX Theatre), then put you on the edge of your seat and tickle your funny-bone at our circus spectacular. You're gonna have fun at Circus World. We just know it.

And YOU Can Get Into The Act:

At Circus World the audience becomes part of the show. Where else can you turn into a clown, become a sharp shooter, try your hand at a game of skill, paddle your own canoe, and maybe even walk the high wire? Nowhere else but Circus World!

Electrifying rides, fantastic shows and a whole lot more. It's a full day of fun for everyone. (And one great value) at Circus World!
